

FAMILY LAW SELF-HELP PROGRAM FOR CHARLOTTE COUNTY
PETITIONER – DIVORCE
PETITION WITH NO DEPENDENT/MINOR CHILD OR PROPERTY

Self-represented individuals are provided this checklist as part of the Family Law Self-Help program for Charlotte County. This covers the basic procedural requirements for filing the type of case noted above. It is not intended to replace actual LEGAL ADVICE, which you must receive only by a licensed attorney. This checklist should help you maneuver your case through the legal process with no unnecessary delays – each document includes specific instructions (DO NOT FILE THE INSTRUCTION PAGES). The forms referenced below may be downloaded free of charge from WWW.FLCOURTS.ORG.

Each of the forms should be kept separated to better organize your efforts and to ensure all forms/instructions are included. You may schedule an appointment with a Family Law Case Manager staff to have your documents notarized and copied at no cost.

After the RESPONDENT is served, the following documents may be necessary. These forms may be downloaded from WWW.FLCOURTS.ORG. The forms may also be requested from the Family Law Self-Help program, by submitting a blue request form (FLSH-Charlotte Form 2) to the Administrative Office of the Courts.

Many of the forms noted on this page may require you to seek legal guidance from a licensed attorney.

- Motion for Default [Form 12.922(a)] and Default [Form 12.922(b)]
This may be filed if the Respondent has failed to file any papers within 20 days of being served, to permit a final hearing/trial to be scheduled.
- Motion for Temporary Support with No Dependent or Minor Child(ren) [Form 12.947(c)].
Either Party may file this motion to ask the Court to award any of the following on a temporary basis, prior to a “final” order: use of assets; exclusive use of the marital home; responsibility for liabilities/debts; spousal support (alimony); and other relief.
- Marital Settlement Agreement for Dissolution of Marriage [Form 12.902(f)(3)].
This is no agreement form specific for cases with no property and not child(ren). This form is acceptable to document the issues which have been agreed to by both Parties; Section III provides space to clarify or add any unique issues not elsewhere addressed in the agreement.
- Notice of Current Address [Form 12.915]
Parties use this form to keep each other and the Court aware of any address changes to avoid missing important notices or correspondence regarding the case.
- Notice for Trial [Form 12.924]
This is filed when a DEFAULT has been entered, or when no settlement can be reached (after formal mediation).

If the RESPONDENT has not been served because he/she cannot be located, the PETITIONER may need to obtain “Constructive Service” (sometimes referred to as “service by publication”). The following documents MUST be properly executed and filed:

- Non-Military Affidavit [Form 12.912(b)]
